BAOU hosts 3-day Future Youth Leaders Bootcamp

The Ministry of Youth Affairs and Sports, in collaboration with My Bharat-Ahmedabad and Dr Babasaheb Ambedkar Open University, inaugurated a three-day 'Future Youth Leaders Bootcamp' at the university on Tuesday.

The programme, being held from September 1 to 3, aims to nurture leadership qualities and inner strength among young people. Vice Chancellor Prof Ami Upadhyay, who presided over the inaugural session, stressed the role of youth in building a drug-free India and said the university campus was completely drug-free.

District Youth Officer Pritesh Kumar N Zaveri, Director of Student Development Department Dr Nisha Joshi, motivational speaker Sayam Jain, life coach Chetna Singhvi and trainer Nidhi Salecha were among those present. The session was moderated by Manali Mangukia.
